

[Student Centre]

UNIT 4: Finance

CHAPTER 15: Credit

E-ACTIVITY: Credit Counselling Canada

Activity: Information Pamphlet on Credit Management
Prepare an information pamphlet on credit management.

Credit Counselling Canada oversees not-for-profit credit counselling agencies across Canada. If you think you have a credit problem, experienced counsellors can look at your financial situation and help you develop a course of action to enable you to deal with your credit crisis.

1. Visit the Credit Counselling Canada website and read the Debt Quiz. What are the telltale signs that you might be in a credit crisis?
2. Take the Are You Credit Wise? quiz in order to determine your credit IQ.
3. Visit Credit 101 and discover more about credit management.
  - a) Read Dealing With a Credit Crisis and identify 4 indicators that you may have a credit problem.
  - b) Select The Costs of Credit Cards and explain how interest is calculated on your credit cards.
  - c) Review Managing Credit and use the link to select Smart Credit Use. Summarize things you can do to use your credit wisely.
  - d) Learn some Helpful Tips on dealing with a credit crisis. Summarize the steps to help you recover from credit crisis.
  - e) Where is the nearest credit counselling agency located?