Uncharted Territory: A High School Reader
Author: Jim Burke

Uncharted Territory: A High School Reader is a unique resource keyed to the challenges, uncertainties, and decisions that all high school students face. This reader helps students envision identities and possibilities outside of the classroom while balancing new freedoms with new responsibilities after graduation.

Key Features
- 8 units engage students in discussions and activities about education, credo, power, relationships, identity, freedom, decisions, and success
- Designed to be used alone or in conjunction with longer works of fiction and nonfiction
- Opportunities to link to popular and canonical texts, such as Walden, Hamlet, and Frankenstein

Back to the Lake
Third High School Edition
Editor: Thomas Cooley

A new take on the traditional rhetorical modes, showing how they are used in the kinds of writing students are most often assigned: arguments, analyses, reports, narratives, and more.

Key Features:
- Templates and marginal notes that explicitly link the readings and the writing instruction
- New chapters on writing paragraphs and using rhetorical modes in academic writing
- New readings on timely topics that will engage students

Reading the World
Third Edition
Author: Michael Austin

With 80 readings by some of the world’s greatest thinkers—from Plato to Gandhi, Carl Jung to Edmund O. Wilson, Gloria Anzaldúa to Toni Morrison—Reading the World offers a global perspective. Selections strike a balance between western and nonwestern, classic and contemporary, longer and shorter, verbal and visual.

They Say/I Say
The Moves That Matter in Academic Writing, with 2016 MLA Update
Third edition
Authors: Gerald Graff, Cathy Birkenstein

This book demystifies academic writing. They Say/I Say shows students that writing well means mastering some key rhetorical moves—the most important of which is to summarize what others have said (“they say”) in order to set up one’s own argument (“I say”). Students learn that writing is always part of a larger conversation, and the book provides templates to show students how to bring their own views in conversation with those expressed by others.
Language Power Now

Empower your students with the foundational skills they need to become effective writers

Language Power Now is a new series of practice exercises to develop vocabulary, grammar, writing, and research skills.

Key Features

• Cross-curricular Connections: Exposes students to topics and vocabulary in the content areas such as science, social studies, health, and math

• Skills Continuum: A systematic approach to building skills from one level to the next. All lessons are written using accessible language to support students at a wide range of reading and writing levels.

• Real-world Writing: Exercises encourage students to use real-world texts, their peers, and their own portfolios to deepen their learning

• Research Skills: Students will learn effective research methods, such as developing inquiry questions, searching for and evaluating sources, taking notes and citing to avoid plagiarism, and protecting their privacy online

• In-Context Applications: Every lesson ends with a task that requires students to use the skill in their own writing

Component Overview

Student Workbooks

- Each Workbook contains dozens of lessons organized into 6 sections to cover the foundational skills for writing, including:
  - Work with Vocabulary
  - Build Sentences
  - Know Capitalization
  - Punctuation
- Skills are developed on a continuum from one level to the next

Blackline Masters

- Each Workbook is also available as Blackline Masters
- Enables teacher customization and differentiated instruction with the ability to pick and choose lessons/exercises
- Allows you to photocopy the entire book

Teacher’s Resource

- Provides tools for assessment for and of learning
- Assessment tools include:
  - Pre-tests
  - Post-tests
  - Rubrics
  - Checklist
  - Answer Keys

Language Power

Language Power emphasizes language conventions, writing, and study. Each book consists of six units addressing key skill areas:
- Vocabulary
- Sentences
- Grammar and usage
- Capitalization and punctuation
- Composition
- Study skills

Key Features
- Composition unit stresses effective writing and includes process-writing techniques such as clustering and brainstorming, as well as structural skills like writing topic sentences, selecting supporting details, and choosing words
- Study skills focus on dictionary and library skills, with each lesson beginning with a learning objective and a new rule followed by an example
- Exercises at the end of each lesson and each unit provide practice and the opportunity to see real-life applications
- Thorough reviews for each unit and a final book review provide ample support for monitoring student progress

GRADERS 7-12

Time Zones
Second Edition

A five-skills program designed to teach teenagers how to use English effectively and help them develop into successful global citizens. This series features engaging real-world content that brings National Geographic explorers and 21st century topics into the classroom.

Key Features

• An all-new Starter level that introduces students to the essential English language skills
• A communicative approach that offers students the opportunity to learn about and critically discuss global issues
• National Geographic video in every unit that introduces amazing places and culture

TED TALKS

• Fascinating Ideas – Relevant 21st century knowledge from TED empowers learners to share their ideas in English
• Inspiring Speakers – Learners will relate to and engage with exciting and motivating TED speakers
• Authentic Language – The language in TED Talks is natural and unabridged, providing examples of spoken English that are real and current

21st Century Reading

Creative Thinking and Reading with TEDTALKS

This four-level series teaches core academic language skills, and incorporates 21st century themes such as global awareness, information literacy, and critical thinking. Using TED Talks as the springboard to share ideas, this new reading series shows students how to understand and respond to ideas and content in English.

Each unit is divided into three parts:
• Read about a 21st century topic, such as social robots and viral videos
• Learn about the topic by viewing an authentic TED Talk
• Explore the topic further by completing a collaborative research project

Perrine’s Literature
Structure, Sound & Sense
Thirteenth Edition
Authors: Thomas R. Arp, Greg Johnson
An authoritative bestseller for over 50 years, Perrine’s Literature: Structure, Sound & Sense continues to be an essential and highly effective introduction to literature for today’s students. A remarkable selection of classic, modern, and contemporary readings serves to illustrate the elements of literature and ensure broad appeal to students of diverse backgrounds and interests.

Key Features
• Fiction section discusses elements of fiction and focusses on three featured writers: Nathaniel Hawthorne, Flannery O’Connor, and Joyce Carol Oates
• Stories for Further Reading offers additional short stories for additional reading study
• Poetry and Drama sections discuss elements of poetry and drama, and include additional poems and plays for further reading
• Glossary of Terms defines terms that have been boldfaced, defined, and discussed throughout the book, and it provides page numbers to direct readers to those discussions within the text.
• Includes Index of Authors, Titles, and First Lines that directs readers to pages on which selections and discussions of them appear

Readings for Writers
Fifteenth Edition
Authors: Jo Ray McCuen-Metherell, Anthony C. Winkler
This bestseller provides instruction in persuasive writing and rhetorical modes, the writing process, and research. With more than 70 selections from a broad range of topics and genres, Readings for Writers prepares students for success with the AP Language and Composition Examination and beyond.

Key Features
• Individual chapters on rhetoric, synthesis, and argumentation and persuasion specifically correspond to the essay prompts in Part II of the AP Language and Composition Examination
• Unique labelling system categorizes each selection as Advice, Topic for Discussion, Example, or an Issue for Critical Thinking and Debate
• Each chapter ends with chapter writing assignments, writing assignments for a specific audience, and an image gallery writing assignment
• Each chapter in Part 2 includes an Issue for Critical Thinking and Debate to jump-start student thinking about relevant topics such as self-image, terrorism, bullying, drugs and society, immigration, online dating, racism, status of women, homelessness, and new technologies
• Each Issue section includes readings and images from a variety of perspectives
