

Nelson Education's Core French Summer Institute

Wednesday, February 10, 2010

Announcing Nelson Education's first Core French Summer Institute!

Held at Nelson Education's head office in Toronto, ON, the summer institute will bring together experts in the field of assessment, differentiated instruction, literacy development, technology integration and cultural studies. Experts will share theories, tips and practices directed specifically to the needs of second-language educators.

Workshops will be based on sessions outlined in the Nelson Education Professional Development Inservice Session Descriptions.

Dates: Thursday, August 19th and Friday, August 20th *

Location: Nelson Education, 1120 Birchmount Road, Toronto, ON

Price:

Option 1: $395 per participant

Includes:

- One copy of Strategies for Success (a $30 discount!)
- Keynote speech
- Two days of quality PD from topic and field experts
- Continental breakfast, two snacks and lunch each day
- All workshop handouts

Option 2: $275 per participant

Includes:

- Keynote speech
- Two days of quality PD from topic and field experts
- Continental breakfast, two snacks and lunch each day
- All workshop handouts

Look for more details to come at the spring OMLTA conference.

*Final dates to be confirmed by March 15, 2010 with registration information.