French Team Introduction

New Team Members!

New!
Pierre Janelle

French-as-a-Second language education in Canada is at an exciting time with pedagogical shifts influencing curriculum change throughout the country. Nelson Education is prepared to adapt and grow to the challenge that change presents in order to create unrivaled learning advantage for FSL educators.

It is with pleasure that Nelson Education Ltd. announces the expansion of the Core French editorial team and French Immersion sales team.

Pierre Janelle recently joined the team at the Montreal office to lead the sales and marketing efforts of the Modulo and Duval brands for the company. Pierre, as regional sales and marketing manager, is presently using his years of experience in the field of adult education, coaching and sales and marketing to build a national sales force capable of identifying and responding to your needs as leaders in FSL education.

New!
Diane Masschaele

Jodi Ravn, publisher of French resources, will lead a team of highly qualified, well-respected veterans of the FSL educational milieu including:

- Diane Masschaele
- Nicole Thibault

Diane Masschaele joins the team Tuesday, February 16th, as executive editor charged with conceptualization of FSL product solutions.

Diane is an experienced author of FSL resources, the former research and communications manager for FSL at Pearson Education, a former Simcoe-Muskoka Catholic DSB teacher, was an associate professor at York University, and remains an Ontario Certified Teacher.

New!
Nicole Thibault

Nicole Thibault joins the team as the FSL Educational Consultant, part-time until late spring 2010 at which time she will begin a full-time secondment to Nelson Education ensuring the pedagogical quality of FSL products and presentations.

Nicole is an experienced author of educational resources, the current executive director of the Canadian Association of Second Language Teachers (CASLT), was a vice principal and teacher in the Ottawa-Carleton DSD, a former seconded professor at the University of Ottawa, and remains an Ontario Certified Teacher and Ottawa-Carleton employee.

The new and expanded Nelson Education team looks forward to meeting you over the coming months.
