CD BLM 2: Hinduism's Worldview: Creating Similes

When we find it hard to explain something in a way that others will understand, we often use similes to help explain our ideas. A simile is a figure of speech that uses the words like or as to compare two things. For example:

- as easy as taking candy from a baby
- as different as night and day
- close like two peas in a pod
- refreshing like a cool breeze on a hot day

Each time one of the concepts listed below is explained in the film, your teacher will stop the documentary and give you some time to complete a simile to help you explain the concept in your own words. Remember to begin your similes with either "like" or "as."

Dharma is...

Karma is...

Samsara is...

Moksha is...

Brahman is...

Atman is...

Maya is...
