Make Connections to Indigenous Worldviews and Principles

- Oral Tradition
- Significance of Balance
- Interaction with Community
- Significance of Elders
- Importance of Silence and Listening
- Respect for the Group Process
- Role of Family and Community
- Experiential Learning
- Respect for Traditional Knowledge
- Importance of Values
- Connection to the Land
- Mentorship
Circle of Life Series

Leveled Little Books with authentic First Nations content that develop literacy skills while building knowledge and understanding of First Nations history, culture, and traditions. The series features content and illustrations from the Indigenous Education Coalition.

The front of the poster lists out the Indigenous Worldviews and Principles that are featured in the Circle of Life Series. You can also use this poster to incorporate these worldviews and principles into your classroom. The poster can be used to:

1. Start conversations or discussions about Indigenous worldviews and principles.
2. Build diversity and an appreciation for the perspectives of other cultures. Students can be asked: How can you relate to Indigenous worldviews and perspectives? Do you have similar views in your family or culture?
3. Observe changes in student's knowledge and understanding of the Indigenous worldviews and principles.

Learn more and watch online professional development videos at:  www.nelson.com/col